SONG DESCRIPTIONS

Rang Rangeele (Title Song)

Music Style: Salsa-pop

Salsa song with an Indian flavor. Apart from the traditional salsa instruments – horns, timbale, conga, piano – flamenco guitar and pan flute are also amply used in the music arrangement. The lyrics for this song have strictly followed the video script. The punch lines for the song are in Spanish and Hindi.

Theme: Live your life to the fullest in this beautiful world. Cherish your friendships and pursue your long lost dreams. Let's spread the message of love and show the world a new path towards change.

The latter part of the song also has a romantic angle to it, when the protagonist meets his dream girl.

Dil Ko Kiya..

Music Style: Peppy Melody

Very good melody set at the right pace and with equal emphasis on upbeat rhythms.

Theme: It's about first love; a subject that everyone can relate to. The very first one from school/college days which swept you off your feet. The first love, on which you pinned all your hopes and dreams, the one that you thought would make your life complete and would last forever. But you could never foresee the disastrous end and the broken heart(s).

Doondun Tujhe..

Music Style: Cha-cha

The music is set to a vibrant live cha-cha performance. Great use of guitar, drums, conga and base. This song has all the elements for a dynamic music video.

Theme: The song is about the artist's search for the dream girl.

Song Descriptions (cont'd)

Sun Panchiyon Ka Raag (Duet – with Sadhana Sargam)

Music Style: Reggae/fusion

This duet song is set to a playful mood throughout. Heavy emphasis on harmony and neatly infuses unique tones to the music arrangement.

Theme: It's about a debate b/w two friends, one advocating love and the other appreciating friendship. The guy wants to translate their friendship into love while the girl holds back; she doesn't want to spoil their friendship.

Jeena Woh Jeena Hai

Music Style: Indian-Rock-mix

The song starts off in a rusty LP-record style switching to a weighty percussion base, with rock undertones. As the song progresses, Indian folk flavor is introduced and it remains predominant for the rest of the song.

Theme: Advocating the art of life. Life is short; so live each moment to the fullest. If you are determined about moving ahead in life and have your mind set on the goal, no obstacles can thwart you. Move past the tribulations and worries and don't carry the baggage from the past. Go ahead and do something that will make you a part of the history rather than just being in someone's memories..!

Ashtoofah

Music Style: Techno with Arabic mix

Out and out techno song with a twist of Arabic flavor melded in to create a unique sound. This song is primarily targeting the night club and radio dj scene. The music has a certain abstract nature to it.

Theme: Setting forth on a spiritual journey; in search of enlightenment - calling out to the Almighty in a confused and distressed state.
